DETROIT TIGERS MISSION STATEMENT

One of the most storied franchises in professional sports, the Detroit Tigers' goal each year is to field a championship team and play an exciting brand of Major League Baseball. Equally important, the Tigers place an emphasis on good value while providing an entertaining, safe and most enjoyable experience. We want families to continue making Comerica Park their place to come have fun and take home lifelong memories. Off the field, the Tigers take pride in maintaining a civic leadership role and have a long-standing commitment to making a social impact within our communities.

MINOR LEAGUE AFFILIATES

Toledo Mud Hens (Triple-A) Erie SeaWolves (Double-A) West Michigan Whitecaps (High-A) Lakeland Flying Tigers (Single-A)

Chris Ilitch is the chief executive officer of Ilitch Companies, spanning some of the world's best-known brands in food, sports, entertainment, and other industries.

Together, these businesses employ thousands of people around the world, positively transform communities through entrepreneurship and philanthropy, and create unforgettable moments that bring individuals, families, and fans together.

Following a highly successful transition to the second generation of leadership under his guidance, Chris has remained steadfast in his vision that all llitch companies have a powerful capacity to improve lives. "We're proud to create opportunities for people across the globe through meaningful careers, small business ownership, and products and services that bring people joy."

True to Mike and Marian Ilitch's entrepreneurial spirit that serves as the foundation of the organization, Chris leads with a focus on planning, innovation, and the pursuit of new opportunities. This approach has resulted in revenue increasing more than 600% at Ilitch Companies since he became CEO in 2004, outperforming the S&P 500 over the same time.

In addition to serving as CEO of Ilitch Companies, Chris holds positions as chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers and remains committed to delivering a best-in-class experience for Tigers' fans and players.

This commitment was strengthened in 2022 through the senior leadership appointments of Ryan Gustafson and Scott Harris. Gustafson joined the organization in February 2022 and was named president and CEO, Ilitch Sports + Entertainment in March 2024, after most recently serving as senior vice president and chief operating officer. Harris joined the Tigers' organization in September 2022 as president of baseball operations after serving two years as general manager of the San Francisco Giants.

This investment in top leadership talent served as a catalyst in accelerating efforts to build a winning culture on and off the field, including increased investments in analytics and infrastructure around player development, amateur and pro scouting,

In furthering his commitment to Tigers' fans and players, the organization also invested in significant ballpark upgrades during the 2023-2024 offseason. This included the installation of a new videoboard which now ranks as the largest in the American League and second largest in Major League Baseball. In addition, a multi-year renovation and expansion of the home clubhouse at Comerica Park, significant upgrades to field lighting, outfield wall reconfiguration and audio and video system enhancements have also been recently completed.

Since completing the successful leadership transition of the team to Chris in February 2017, the organization has invested more than $123 million in fan and player experience upgrades. Additional investments currently in the planning and preparation phase include upgrades to the club's new spring training complex in Lakeland, and a new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Chris is actively engaged in the community as Chairman of Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Tigers Foundation and the Detroit Red Wings Foundation.

Ilitch Companies, the organization's colleagues and owners, and Ilitch foundations have donated more than $275 million to worthy causes in recent years, served over 7 million meals to those in need, and donated thousands of volunteer hours in support of community programs and organizations.

Beyond his work at the Ilitch Companies and Ilitch Charities, Chris also serves on the Economic Reform, Audit (chair), DEI, and Legislative Affairs committees of Major League Baseball. Additionally, he serves on the Board of Governors for the National Hockey League as well as the Strategic Planning & Innovation and Media & Content Committees.

Chris also serves on the board and executive committees for Business Leaders for Michigan, the Detroit Economic Club, and the Downtown Detroit Partnership, and is an advisory board member of the Harvard Kennedy School Taubman Center for State and Local Government.

Chris has served on host/hospitality committees for the NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Championship (co-chair), the NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament, Super Bowl XL, and the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star game (chair). He also served as the 2023 Senior Corporate Chair for the 68th Annual Detroit Branch NAACP Fight for Freedom Fund Dinner.

A graduate with a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan, Chris is a proud father of three and resides with his wife, Kelle, and their family in metro Detroit.

Ryan Gustafson enters his second baseball season with Ilitch Sports + Entertainment and his first in the role of President and CEO after being promoted to the position on March 25. In his role, Gustafson leads business operations for the Detroit Tigers, Detroit Red Wings, Little Caesars Arena, Comerica Park, and the Fox Theatre. He also oversees the Ilitch joint venture interest in 313 Presents.

- Reporting directly to Christopher Ilitch, CEO, Ilitch Companies, Gustafson leads IS+E ticket sales, corporate partnerships, marketing, communications, broadcasting, community, business analytics, human resources, venue operations, and other areas of business operations for two of the most iconic franchises in professional sports.
- · Represents the Tigers and Red Wings at MLB and NHL owners' meetings.
- Since joining the organization in 2022 as Senior Vice President, Business Strategy, one of Gustafson's many focuses have been planning and implementing facility improvements throughout the Detroit Tigers organization.
- Alongside Baseball Operations President Scott Harris, Gustafson has played a large role in the multi-year renovation and expansion of the home clubhouse at Comerica Park, a new dormitory at the club's Lakeland complex, and a new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. Several projects to enhance the fan experience have also been completed under Gustafson's oversight, including state-of-the-art LED lighting (2023), a new sound system and videoboard (2024), the largest in the American League.
- Prior to joining IS+E, Gustafson, 38, held several roles across the industry, including most recently as a Sports and Media Strategy Consultant and Senior Advisor for Elevate Sports Ventures (202022) and President of the Seattle Dragons in the XFL (2019-20).
- From 2016-19, Gustafson served as Vice President of Strategy & Development and Head of Revenue for Seattle Sounders FC. His first executive role was as the Vice President of Strategy & Innovation for the San Diego Padres (2013-16).
- Gustafson currently serves on the Detroit Sports Organization Corp. (DSOC), an all-volunteer advisory committee, a group that prioritizes, evaluates, and executes bids that enable the Detroit Sports Commission to attract major sporting events to metro Detroit. He is also a board member for Business Leaders for Michigan.
- Gustafson earned an undergraduate degree in economics at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Washington, where he was captain of the Loggers baseball team. He also earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the Harvard Business School. During his graduate program, Gustafson was the President of Harvard's Business of Sports Club.
- · Gustafson and his wife, Lydia, reside in metro Detroit.

- Under his leadership, the Tigers posted a second-place finish in the American League Central Division in 2023, the club's first time doing so since the 2016 campaign. With a priority on dominating the strike zone, the club's pitchers ranked eighth among all teams in walks per nine innings (2.97), and ninth in WHIP (1.25) and FIP (4.13).
- In player development, the Tigers farm system has ascended to one of the best in the big leagues... after being ranked No. 21, No. 25 and No. 26 by ESPN, MLB Pipeline and Baseball America, respectively, entering the 2023 season, Detroit's Minor League system was ranked third by ESPN and fifth by MLB Pipeline and Baseball America entering 2024.
- Spearheaded efforts to improve the player experience in Detroit, putting players in the best possible position to succeed on and off the field. One key part of that has been the multi-year renovation and expansion of the home clubhouse at Comerica Park, which includes a new kitchen and dining area in 2023 and a new weight room in 2024. Another area has been team travel, which came in the form of working alongside ownership to purchase and design a new team plane.
- Joined the Tigers after spending the previous three seasons as the General Manager for the San Francisco Giants, playing a key role in constructing the Giants roster. The 2021 team won the National League West Division and finished the season with a 107-55 record, the best regular season record in franchise history. During his three seasons in San Francisco, the Giants posted a 205-163 (.557) record, the fourth-best winning percentage among NL teams and the eighth-best mark in the Majors over that span.
- Prior to joining the Giants, he spent seven years working in the Chicago Cubs' baseball operations
 - department, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager. Under Cubs President Theo Epstein and GM Jed Hoyer, he assisted in all potential player acquisitions, contract and trade negotiations, and player evaluations while overseeing several departments.
- While with Chicago, the Cubs reached the postseason in four consecutive seasons from 2015-18 and ended a 108-year World Series drought by beating the Cleveland Indians in 2016.
- Harris started with the Cubs in 2012 as Director of Baseball Operations after serving two years at Major League Baseball as the league's Coordinator of Major League Operations. With MLB, he Enters his fourth season on the Tigers coaching staff, serving as pitching coach. Though he is one of the youngest pitching coaches in the Major Leagues, Fetter has a wealth of experience across baseball, including most recently as the pitching coach at the University of Michigan for three seasons (2018-20).

- In 2022, the Tigers bullpen was one of the best units in the American League throughout the season, finishing with a 3.43 ERA (617.0IP/235ER), which ranked sixth in the AL and eighth in the Majors... Detroit's 3.43 bullpen ERA was the club's lowest since the 1990 team had a 3.26 ERA (505.0IP/183ER).
- Made an immediate impact on the Tigers pitching staff in his first season in 2021, as the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span...among the many individual accomplishments from 2021, Fetter helped lead Casey Mize to the most quality starts by any Major League rookie, Tarik Skubal to establish a new franchise rookie strikeout record, Gregory Soto to earn his first career All-Star Game appearance and a no-hitter from Spencer Turnbull.
- Established as one of the brightest pitching minds in college baseball, he helped the Wolverines identify and develop elite pitchers, aiding the team's run to the College World Series Finals in 2019...during that 2019 run, his staff was ranked 10th in the nation and led the Big Ten Conference with a 3.46 ERA (635.0IP/344ER), while finishing seventh in the nation with just 7.44 hits allowed per game.
- Under his tutelage at Michigan, his alma mater, the team had four pitchers drafted in the top three rounds of the 2019, 2020 and 2021 MLB Drafts.
- Prior to his time with the Wolverines, he was the Minor League pitching coordinator with the Dodgers (2016-17), pitching coach at Ball State University (2016-17), professional scout with the Angels (2013-15) and assistant pitching coach for Double A San Antonio (2013).
- He and Tigers manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths while both were in the San Diego organization, where Fetter was a righthanded pitcher from 2009-12 and Hinch was the Vice President of Scouting and Assistant General Manager from 2011-14.

2024 TIGERS

- Was drafted in the ninth round of the 2009 MLB Draft by San Diego...played four seasons of professional baseball, posting a combined 6-11 record and 3.56 ERA (179.2IP/71ER) at the Single A level, striking out 162 and walking just 49.
- He was a standout player at Michigan, earning All-Big Ten honors three times and helping the team to three conference championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances...his 332.1 innings pitched ranks as the highest total in school history, while his 28 career wins and 281 career strikeouts each rank as the third-highest.

Lombard enters his fourth season on the Tigers coaching staff as bench coach, after serving as the first base coach with the Dodgers for the previous five years. Lombard also coaches Detroit's outfielders as well as the club's baserunners. His transition to coaching came following a 16-year playing career in professional baseball.

- His 2020 campaign served as a career highlight, helping the Dodgers to a World Series championship... also coached the club's baserunners and outfielders, helping a number of elite players develop and excel at the Major League level.
- Prior to his time with the Dodgers, he spent the 2015 season as Atlanta's Minor League field coordinator, preceded by parts of six seasons working in the Red Sox player development system.
- With Boston he served three years as the organization's Minor League outfield and baserunning coordinator (2013-15), two as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox (2011-12) and one as the hitting coach for Single A Lowell (2010)...as manager of the GCL Red Sox his teams went 61-59, and the 2012 club reached the GCL finals.
- Prior to becoming a coach he played six seasons in the Major Leagues, including three seasons with Atlanta (1998-2000) and one each with Detroit (2002), Tampa Bay (2003) and Washington (2006)... over his career in the big leagues, he batted .281/.340/.621, knocking 12 doubles, three triples and eight home runs, while driving in 21 RBI and stealing 23 bases.

2024 TIGERS

- During his 2002 campaign with the Tigers he established career highs with 72 games played, 58 hits, 11 doubles, three triples, five homers and 13 RBI.
- Played 1,213 Minor League games in his career, combining to post a .262/.355/.437 slashline, with 212 doubles, 55 triples, 143 home runs and 540 RBI...went 318-for-408 in stolen base attempts over that span, and committed just three errors in 2,015.1 innings played to post a .994 fielding percentage.
- Was an All-American high school running back who signed to play football and baseball at the University of Georgia before opting to begin his professional baseball career...was drafted by Atlanta in the second round of the 1994 MLB Draft out of The Lovett School (GA).
- Graduated from the University of Phoenix with a bachelor's degree in psychology.
- His late mother, Posy, was a civil rights activist who marched alongside Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., among many other courageous and selfless acts to promote equality.

Enters his second season as an assistant pitching coach on the Tigers Major League staff after being named to the position on November 15, 2022.

- Most recently spent four seasons at the University of Iowa, including the last three as the Hawkeyes pitching coach...during his tenure at Iowa, he coached five All-Americans, two Big Ten Pitchers of the Year and one Big Ten Freshman of the Year.
- In 2022, Iowa had one of the best pitching staffs in the country, ranking second nationally in hits allowed per nine innings (6.88), third in strikeouts per nine innings (11.2), fourth in ERA (3.72) and fifth in WHIP (1.29)...the staff led the Big Ten in virtually every pitching category during the season and finished the year with a school-record 609 strikeouts.
- Prior to his time at Iowa, Lund was a volunteer hitting coach for the University of Northern Iowa softball program in 2018.
- Lund, who holds his doctorate in exercise science, was an associate professor in the department of kinesiology at UNI from 2002-18...his main teaching responsibilities were in the areas of biomechanics, anatomy, statistics, and research methods...his research was focused primarily on improving athletic performance.
- Has been a baseball strength and conditioning coach at several stops, including UNI in 2005-06, Lewis Clark State College in 2000-01 and for the Spokane Indians in 1998.
- Earned his bachelor's degree in education from Whitworth College in 1995 and his master's degree in exercise science from Eastern Washington in 1997...completed his Ph.D. in exercise science at the University of Idaho in 2002.
- Is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and is a past president of the National Strength and Conditioning Association of Iowa.

Entering his third season on the Tigers Major League coaching staff, Nieves begins his fifth season in the organization. With vast experience coaching at the Major and Minor League levels, Nieves works hand-in-hand with pitching coach Chris Fetter and assistant pitching coach Robin Lund to maximize the potential of the club's pitchers.

- In 2022, the Tigers bullpen was one of the best units in the American League throughout the season, finishing with a 3.43 ERA (617.0IP/235ER), which ranked sixth in the AL and eighth in the Majors...
 Detroit's 3.43 bullpen ERA was the club's lowest since the 1990 team had a 3.26 ERA (505.0IP/183ER).
- In his first season as the Tigers' assistant pitching coach in 2021, the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span.
- Was named the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo for 2019-20, but spent 2020 working at the club's alternate training site due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2024 TIGERS

- Prior to joining the Tigers organization he spent three seasons on the Major League staff with Miami, serving as pitching coach...was also the Major League pitching coach with Boston for three seasons (2013-15) and bullpen coach with the White Sox for five seasons (1992-1996).
- Spent nine seasons as a Minor League coach in the White Sox system (1999-2007) and five seasons in the Yankees system (1992-1996).
- Originally signed by Milwaukee in 1983, he later became the second-youngest player in Major League history to throw a no-hitter, completing the feat on April 15, 1987 against Baltimore...over three seasons with the Brewers he posted a combined 32-25 record and 4.71 ERA (490.2IP/257ER), striking out 352 and walking 227.
- Prior to signing with Milwaukee, he played at Avon Old Farms High School (CT), where he posted a career 19-1 record with a 1.05 ERA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Selected to play in the 2021 MLB Futures Game at Coors Field in Denver.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Limited to 99 games in 2023 due to two separate stints on the injured list.

- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.
- Hit safely in 10 consecutive games from April 26-May 6, going 15x40 with two doubles, a home run and six RBI.
- Voted Tigers Player of the Month for May, hitting .365/.435/.573 with nine doubles, one triple, three home runs and 11 RBI...led all qualified American League hitters in batting average during the month, while he was fourth in on-base percentage, fifth in OPS (1.008) and seventh in slugging percentage.
- Sidelined from May 31-July 7 with a left fibula stress reaction.
- Named Tigers Player of the Month for July, slashing .343/.405/.537 with four doubles, three home runs and six RBI in 18 games...among American League players with at least 70 plate appearances in the month, he ranked ninth in batting average.
- Launched a 453-foot solo homer on August 10 vs. Minnesota...was the longest homer of his career, tied for the fifth longest by a Tiger at Comerica Park in the Statcast Era and the longest by a Tigers player age 23-or-younger in the Statcast Era (since 2015).
- Tied a career high with four RBI on August 16 at Minnesota, recording three hits, including a triple and a home run.
- Hit safely in 50-of-62 games from April 26-August 16, batting .340/.399/.546 with 18 doubles, two triples, nine home runs and 27 RBI.
- Recorded his 200th career hit with a single in the third inning on August 27 vs. Houston...became just the 16th Tiger in franchise history to reach 200 hits before his 23rd birthday.
- Placed on the injured list on September 2 with a right elbow sprain and missed the rest of the season.

Saw the first Major League action of his career in 2022, playing in 93 games.

- Voted Tiger of the Year by the Detroit chapter of the BBWAA and Tigers Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Media Association.
- Began the season on the injured list with a right foot fracture and was reinstated on May 30.
- Made his Major League debut on June 18 vs. Texas, reaching base in four plate appearances, going 2x3 with two walks and two runs scored...became the first Tigers player to reach base four times in their big league debut since Scott Livingstone on July 19, 1991 at Kansas City.
- Drew multiple walks in each of his first two big league games, the fourth Major Leaguer since the start of 2010 to do so (others: Travis Demeritte, 2019; Travis d'Arnaud, 2013; Anthony Rizzo, 2011)...joined Demeritte as the only players in Tigers history to do so.
- Had a pair of hits on June 21 at Boston and reached base multiple times in each of his first four Major League games, becoming the fourth Tiger to do so and the first since Hub Walker in 1931.
- Drove in the first run of his Major League career on June 25 at Arizona.
- Hit his first big league home run on July 2 vs. Kansas City, a walk-off solo shot...became the seventh player in franchise history to have his first homer come on a walk-off, and first since Lou Whitaker in 1978.
- Reached base safely in 16 of his first 17 Major League games, the first Tiger to do so since Quintin Berry in 2012.
- Had a game-tying RBI single with two outs in the ninth inning on July 26 vs. San Diego...marked his second career game-tying or go-ahead hit in the ninth inning (other, July 3 vs. Kansas City).
- Launched the first leadoff home run of his big league career on August 21 vs. Los Angeles (AL), hitting a 448-foot shot off Shohei Ohtani...was the longest homer surrendered by Ohtani in his Major League career and was the longest leadoff homer for a Tigers hitter in the Statcast Era (since 2015).
- Drove in a season-high four runs and had three hits, including a triple and a home run, on August 26 at Texas.
- Voted Tigers Player of the Month for August, hitting .265/.311/.434 with six doubles, two triples, three home runs and 15 RBI.
- Hit safely in 13 consecutive games from August 20-September 4, slashing .396/.458/.623 with two doubles, two triples, two home runs and six RBI...the streak was the second-longest by a rookie in the Majors during the season and the longest by a Tigers rookie since Milt Cuyler had a 15-game streak in 1991.
- Had a 20-game, on-base streak from August 20-September 14...was the longest streak by a Tigers player during the season and was the longest by a Detroit rookie since Austin Jackson reached base in 25 straight games in 2010.

Earned Tigers Minor League Player of the Year honors in 2021 after hitting .301/.387/.534 with 25 doubles, eight triples, 24 home runs and 84 RBI in 124 games between Double A Erie and Triple A Toledo.

- Ranked fourth in Minor League Baseball with 146 hits, while he was tied for sixth with 259 total bases and tied for seventh with 95 runs scored.
- Named a Minor League All-Star by Baseball America and a Tigers Organization All-Star by MiLB.com.
- Hit a pair of solo home runs on May 20 vs. Binghamton...also homered twice on September 5 at Omaha.
- Reached base safely in all five plate appearances on June 19 vs. Altoona, going 3x3 with a double, a triple, a home run, four RBI and two walks.
- Selected Double A Northeast Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending August 15 after hitting .500/.536/1.154 with three doubles, one triple, four home runs and 12 RBI...homered in four straight games from August 12-14.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization, the No. 4 prospect in all of baseball, the thirdbest prospect in the Eastern League and No. 4 prospect in the International League by Baseball America following the season...also rated as the best hitter for average and the best defensive outfielder in the Tigers system.

- Made his Major League debut on June 17 at Los Angeles (AL), tossing 5.0 innings and allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and three strikeouts...struck out Justin Upton to end the second inning for his first big league punchout.
- Earned his first big league win on June 23 vs. St. Louis, allowing two runs on five hits with two walks and a strikeout in 5.2 innings...became the first Tigers starter to earn a win in one of his first two games since Michael Fulmer won his debut on April 29, 2016.
- Recorded his first career quality start and picked up the win on July 21 vs. Texas, throwing 6.0 innings and allowing two runs, one earned, on four hits with two walks and four strikeouts...became the first Tigers rookie to allow no more than two earned runs in five of his first six starts since Drew Smyly held opponents to two-or-fewer earned runs in each of his first six starts in 2012.
- Made his final three starts of the season against Chicago (AL)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first Tigers pitcher to face the same opponent in three straight starts, all within a single season, since 1978 when Jim Slaton (June 1-13) and Milt Wilcox (May 31-June 12) had three consecutive starts vs. Milwaukee.
- Finished the season strong, working 5.0 shutout innings on October 2 at Chicago (AL), allowing two hits with one walk and a career-high seven strikeouts...allowed three runs-or-less in seven of his last nine appearances.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Missed the entire 2023 season while rehabbing from Tommy John surgery.

Started only two games for the Tigers in 2022 after suffering a season-ending injury in April.

 Placed on the injured list on April 15 with a right elbow sprain and missed the rest of the season after undergoing Tommy John surgery.

Completed his first full Major League season in 2021, starting 30 games.

- Led all rookies with 12 quality starts, while he ranked eighth among American League pitchers (min. 140.0 innings pitched) with a 1.14 WHIP.
- His 3.71 ERA was the fifth lowest among Tigers rookies since 1947 and the lowest since Michael Fulmer had a 3.06 ERA (159.0IP/54ER) in 2016.
- Made an Opening Day roster at the Major League level for the first time in his career.
- Earned his first big league victory on April 12 at Houston, throwing 7.0 shutout innings with five hits allowed and two walks, while striking out five...became the first Detroit rookie to throw 7.0-or-more scoreless innings since Michael Fulmer threw a shutout on August 8, 2016 at Texas.
- Allowed just one earned run over his first two starts, becoming the fourth Tigers rookie since 2000 to allow no more than one combined earned run in his first two starts of a season, joining Robbie Ray (2014), Drew Smyly (2012) and Andy Van Hekken (2002), who each allowed one earned run.
- Threw his first career complete game in the first game of the doubleheader on April 29 at Chicago (AL), going 6.0 innings and allowing three runs on four hits and three walks, while striking out six...was the first Tigers rookie pitcher to go the distance since Michael Fulmer on August 16, 2016 at Texas.
- Turned in the longest outing of his career on May 17 at Seattle, throwing 7.2 innings and allowing a run on three hits and three walks, while striking out seven.
- Posted five consecutive quality starts from April 29-May 23, over which he had a 2-1 record with a 2.25 ERA (32.0IP/8ER) and 26 strikeouts...the streak was tied for the longest by a Tigers rookie since Justin Verlander had eight straight in 2006 and the longest by a Major League rookie since Atlanta's Mike Soroka had a six-game streak in 2019.
- Named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for May after posting a 2-0 record and 1.74 ERA (31.0IP/6ER) with 27 strikeouts...ranked fourth in the American League in ERA and opponent batting average (.162) during the month, while he was fifth in WHIP (0.87).
- Allowed three-or-fewer runs in 14 straight starts from April 29-July 19, over which he had a 4-3 record with a 2.97 ERA (78.2IP/26ER) and 65 strikeouts...the streak was the longest by a Tigers pitcher since Jack Morris had 16 consecutive starts from July 9-September 17, 1983.
- Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month for July, compiling a 1-1 record with a 3.18 ERA (22.2IP/8ER) and 16 strikeouts in five starts...among American League pitchers with at least 22.0 innings pitched during the month, he ranked seventh with a 1.01 WHIP.
- Contributed on both sides of the ball on August 24 at St. Louis, throwing 5.0 shutout innings and also drawing a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first big league plate appearance...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first player at any position to draw a four-pitch bases loaded walk in his first MLB plate appearance since Cubs pitcher Courtney Duncan on May 5, 2001 vs. Los Angeles (NL)...
 the last Tigers player at any position to walk with the bases loaded (of any pitch count) in his first big league plate appearance was pitcher Daryl Patterson vs. Chicago (AL) on April 13, 1968.

One of the top prospects in baseball, he appeared in the first seven games of his Major League career in 2020...posted an 0-3 record and 6.99 ERA (28.1IP/22ER) on 29 hits and 13 walks, while striking out 26.

- Was selected from the alternate training site prior to the game on August 19 at Chicago (AL) and made his Major League debut that night...tossed 4.1 innings in his debut, allowing three runs on seven hits with no walks and seven strikeouts...became the first pitcher in Tigers history to strike out seven-ormore batters while not issuing a walk in his debut and the first MLB pitcher to do so since Stephen Strasburg with Washington on June 8, 2020 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Had the best start of his season on September 11 at Chicago (AL)...did not factor into the decision, allowing two runs on one hit with two walks and five strikeouts in 5.1 innings...he faced the minimum through the first five innings and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning before allowing a double to Yolmer Sánchez...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the no-hit bid was the longest by a Detroit rookie pitcher since Michael Fulmer threw 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on June 1, 2016 at Los Angeles (AL).
- Was very successful with his fastball in 2020, holding opponents to a .136 (3x22) batting average against that pitch...that figure ranked ninth in the American League among pitchers that threw at least 140 fourseamers during the season.
- Ranked as the No. 3 prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 28 prospect overall by Baseball America following the season...also rated as possessing the best changeup in the Tigers system.

Put together an impressive 2019 season, compiling an 8-3 record with a 2.55 ERA (109.1IP/31ER), 0.94 WHIP and 106 strikeouts in 21 starts between Single A Lakeland and Double A Erie.

- · Named to the Eastern League midseason All-Star Team.
- Earned Florida State League Pitcher of the Week honors in consecutive weeks on April 22 and 29...over the two weeks, combined to throw 15.0 shutout innings with two hits allowed, one walk and 10 strikeouts.
- Made his debut with Erie on April 29 at Altoona and threw a no-hitter on 98 pitches, allowing just two baserunners, one on a hit by pitch and the other on a walk, and striking out seven...it marked the fourth no-hitter in SeaWolves history.
- Selected Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April after posting a 3-0 record with a 0.26 ERA
 (35.0IP/1ER) and 32 strikeouts...allowed just seven hits during the month, holding opponents to a .064 (7x109) batting average.
- Named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the week ending May 5 after making two starts during the week and going 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA (14.0IP/0ER) and 11 strikeouts.
- Picked up his second Eastern League weekly honor for the week ending May 26...won a pair of starts during the week and threw 14.0 scoreless innings with seven hits allowed and 12 strikeouts.
- Sidelined from June 14-July 10 with right shoulder inflammation.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization, the No. 13 prospect in all of baseball and the second-best prospect in the Eastern League by Baseball America following the season...also rated as possessing the best changeup in the Tigers system.

Made five starts between the GCL Tigers West and Single A Lakeland as he completed his first season of professional baseball in 2018.

- Made his professional debut on July 26 vs. the GCL Yankees East, throwing 2.0 hitless innings with four strikeouts.
- Struck out four over 3.0 shutout innings in his first start with Lakeland on July 31 at Dunedin.
- Ranked as the top prospect in the Tigers organization and the No. 16 prospect in all of baseball by Baseball America following the season.

AMATEUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Played collegiately at Auburn University, pitching for the Tigers from 2016-18...became just the second two-time All-American and consensus All-American in Auburn history.
- Earned first-team All-SEC honors and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Trophy in 2018, as he led the SEC with 151 strikeouts, 12.45 strikeouts per 9.0 innings and a 0.81 WHIP, while he was second in the league with 12 walks allowed and 0.99 walks allowed per 9.0 innings.
- Named a second team All-American in 2017 as he went 8-2 with a 2.04 ERA (83.2IP/19ER), which ranked third in the SEC and 25th nationally...also led the country with a 12.11 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

TIGERS YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first Major League Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by 3.5 games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the Major Leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

MIKE ILITCH (1929-2017)

- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- Signed with the Tigers in 1952 and played in minor league baseball for four seasons, with several clubs, and mostly as a second baseman, before an injury derailed his career.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 28 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
 - The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in - decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.
- Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.
- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. In 2020, Little Caesars opened a new headquarters in a nine-story, 234,000 square
- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.

foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.

- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and the Tigers would go on to host the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.
- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than 7 million people.
- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides poorpably discharged weterans with financial ince
 - that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.
- The charitable reach of Mike & Marian Ilitch and the Ilitch companies has expanded to more than $275 million in grants and giving since 2000. Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, continue to carry on the mission of supporting deserving causes and organizations across the community.
- As part of this charitable legacy, Mike & Marian Ilitch have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University
 – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
 - o The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
 - o SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
 - o Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
 - o US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
 - o National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
 - o Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)
- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H.
 McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.
- In 2004, Mike Ilitch and his wife, Marian, named Chris Ilitch as CEO of Ilitch Companies. Following the passing of Mike Ilitch in 2017, Chris succeeded his father as chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

JULY 8, 1941 American League 7, National League S

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in All-Star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and a RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with a RBI.

JULY 10, 1951 National League 8. American League 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped a then All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in All-Star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing what was then an All-Star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star games. Stan Musial also established a new All-Star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

JULY 13, 1971 American League 6. National League 4

NATIONAL LEAGUE

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched a then All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Robinson was named as the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game, playing right field, in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

JULY 12, 2005 American League 7, National League 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and a RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

TIGERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in Major League history.
- His Major League record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years, and single-season Major League record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the Major League record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Ranks second all-time in triples (297), only behind his Tigers teammate, Sam Crawford (309)...also sits fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892).
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in Major League history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat. Was the Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- Won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons from 1907-20.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and led the league in RBI in four of the five years from 1907-11.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both Major Leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), while leading the Tigers to the final of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number, as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as playermanager in 1934, leading a turnaround that culminated with Detroit winning back-to-back American League pennants and

- its first World Series Championship in 1935. Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player, after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally regaining consciousness...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times during his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 Major League seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season, en route to his MLB career record of 309.
- Is the all-time Major League leader in triples, legging out 309 during his career.
- · A lifetime .309 hitter, Crawford was known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- · Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914, finishing runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (American League Most Valuable Player).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average...Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13-of-16 full seasons, had 200-or-more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
- Named the American League Most Valuable Player in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the Most Valuable Player award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the American League in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15-or-more home runs in a season six times, and had 100-or-more RBI seven times.
- · Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tigers record for a lefthanded hitter.
- · Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Member of the American League pennant-winning Tigers clubs in 1934 and 1940.
- · Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers general manager from 1951-53.

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II, and another season lost to injury...captured two American League Most Valuable Player awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tigers record 63 doubles, just four short of the Major League mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the Majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL Most Valuable Player in 1935 after leading the league with 36 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in a career-high 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL Most Valuable Player honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career best .340 and led the league with 50 doubles, 41 home runs and 150 RBI...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two home runs and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first seven full seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for seventh-highest in Major League history.
- · Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390-or-better four times in his career:

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 115 runs...in all, batted .340-or-better eight times.
- Led the American League with 237 hits in 1921 and hit .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees' Lou Gehrig in AL Most Valuable Player balloting, after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage, all behind Ruth.
- Was sold to the Cincinnati Reds on October 14, 1929, where he played in 1930 and 1932...batted .333 in 1930 with 19 home runs, two off his career best, and 91 RBI.
- After his playing career, he broadcasted Tigers games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to three consecutive American League pennants from 1907-09.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times, batted .398 in 1896 and led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years...became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tigers uniform.
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1945.

If any player defined the Tigers during the second half of the 20th Century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility...at the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20-or-more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankees catchers Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, respectively...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, *The Sporting News*chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the Majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in AL history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15-of-16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and 1967 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300-or-better and drilled 20-or-more home runs nine times during his career.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time designated hitter and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old American League record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tigers player ever to have his number retired.
- Spent every year from 1976 to his passing in 2020 in the Tigers organization, first as a television color analyst (1976-2001) and then as a Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager.

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just 18 third basemen enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star Games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and 1951...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- Was acquired by the Tigers on May 18, 1946, from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for outfielder Barney McCoskey.
 In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, in 1952, when he was traded to the Red Sox 39 games into the season.
- Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- Wore uniform No. 21 from 1946-50 and No. 7 in 1951-52 with the Tigers.
- Was included in an eight-player trade on June 3, 1952, in which he, Dizzy Trout, Hoot Evers and Johnny Lipon were sent from the Tigers to Boston in exchange for Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Bill Wight, Fred Hatfield and Don Lenhardt.
- Also played for the White Sox and Orioles before retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1983.
- Began broadcasting full-time after retiring as a player, and, except for 1964, called Tigers baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons, but entered the Hall of Fame as a Detroit Tiger after playing his first five years with the club.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for manager Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his first season with the St. Louis Browns, collected 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 Major League record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40-or-more doubles six times, leading the league in 1928 and 1929, and topped the American League with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmie Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...was selected to his only All-Star game in 1934.
- In 7,654 career at-bats, fanned just 345 times (never more than 30 times in a season).
- Was traded from Detroit to the St. Louis Browns on Dec. 2, 1927, along with Lu Blue in exchange for Chick Galloway, Elam Vangilder and Harry Rice.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1964.

TIGERS IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

One of seven players in Major League history to win a World Series with three different teams, Jack Morris was among the top pitchers in the Majors in the 1980s and into the early 1990s.

- Éarned five All-Star selections during his career, was named the American League Babe Ruth Award winner in 1984 and 1991 and was selected the AL Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News in 1981...finished in the top five in AL Cy Young Award voting four times.
- Spent 14 of his 18 Major League seasons in a Tigers uniform, pitching in 430 games, including 408 starts, and compiling a 198-150 record with a 3.73 ERA (3042.2IP/1262ER) and 1980 strikeouts...he ranks second in franchise history in games started, third in strikeouts, fourth in innings pitched, fifth in wins, eighth in complete games (154) and shutouts (24) and ninth in appearances.
- Helped the Tigers to the 1984 World Series championship, making three starts in the postseason and going 3-0, including two complete game victories in the Fall Classic.
- Following his 14 years in Detroit, he went to Minnesota, where he led the Twins to the 1991 World Series title...won MVP honors after tossing 10.0 shutout innings in Game 7 vs. Atlanta.
- Pitched for Toronto in 1992-93, winning World Series championships in both seasons.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December, 2017.
- On August 12, 2018, he became the seventh Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 47).

The only pitcher in Major League history to win back-to-back league Most Valuable Player awards, Hal Newhouser, Detroit born-and-raised, was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first Most Valuable Player award in 1944 after leading the Majors with a 29-9 record and 187 strikeouts... his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 club record.
- Named Most Valuable Player again the following season, becoming just the third American League pitcher to lead baseball in wins (25), ERA (1.81) and strikeouts (212) all in the same season...his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the Majors.
 Spent 15 of his 17 big league seasons in a Tigers uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star... led the American League in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each and hurled back-to-back 300-
- American League in Victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each and hurled back-to-back 300plus inning seasons in 1944 and 1945.

 From 1944-48, won 20-or-more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107
- From 1944-48, won 20-or-more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 10, complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- On July 27, 1997, he became the fourth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 16).
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1992.

One of the best shortstops of his generation, Alan Trammell spent all 20 seasons of his Major League career in a Tigers uniform, joining Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players in franchise history to spend the entirety of their 20-plus year career in the Olde English 'D'.

- career in the Olde English 'D'.

 Hit .300-or-better in seven seasons and finished his career with 2,365 hits, 412 doubles and a .285 career batting average.
- · Earned six All-Star Game selections, four Gold Glove Awards at shortstop and three Silver Slugger Awards.
- Led the Tigers to the 1984 World Series Championship, earning Most Valuable Player honors after hitting .450 with two home runs and six RBI over the five-game series.
- Enjoyed the best season of his professional career in 1987, when he finished second in the voting for American League
 Most Valuable Player after posting career bests with a .343 batting average, 205 hits, 28 home runs and 105 RBI, while leading the Tigers to the AL East Division title.
- Became the 35th manager in Tigers history in October, 2002 and was the team's manager from 2003-05.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Modern Baseball Era Committee in December 2017.
- On August 26, 2018, he became the eighth Tigers player to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 3).

TIGERS PLAYER DEVELOPMENT STAFF

BILLY BOYER

Field Coordinator

Boyer returns to the Tigers in 2024 to serve as the organization's Field Coordinator. In his first stint with Detroit, he worked as the Infield Coordinator in 2022.

Boyer most recently was at the University of Washington where he spent the 2023 season as an assistant coach. During his one season with the Huskies, the team finished with a 35-20 record and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his first stint with the Tigers, Boyer spent the 2019-20 seasons as the Minor League Infield and Baserunning Coordinator with Minnesota.

Before making the transition to coaching at the professional level, Boyer spent 11 seasons in college baseball assistant coach/hitting coach roles at institutions including: Seattle University (2018 - senior year of Tigers LHP Tarik Skubal), University of Washington (2016-17), Pierce College (2011-15), Green River Community College (2010) and Tacoma Community College (2009).

As a player, Boyer was drafted out of Enumclaw High School (WA) by the Los Angeles Angels in the 19th round of the 2003 MLB Draft. The infielder played 187 games during his three seasons in affiliated baseball (2003-05), slashing .244/.311/.373 with 30 doubles, 13 home runs and 78 RBI. He additionally played one season in an independent league, suiting up for the Joliet Jackhammers in 2006.

Director, Hitting

Entering his fifth season with the Tigers, Graham serves as the Director of Hitting. His major focus is on hitting development and strategies, establishing an organizationwide hitting protocol with a focus on utilizing data and technology to aid growth and performance.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Graham spent the previous three seasons as the Minor League hitting coordinator for Milwaukee. Before that he spent seven seasons in various Minor League roles in Toronto's system, including as the co-hitting coordinator (2015) and hitting coach at Single A Lansing (2012-13, 2015), Single A Bluefield (2011) and Single A Auburn (2010). He also managed the organization's Gulf Coast League affiliate in 2014 and served as the hitting coach for the Independent League's Gary RailCats for two seasons (2008-09).

He attended Indiana University and was an outfielder on the baseball team before moving into coaching at the University of Indianapolis as the hitting coach, while receiving his Masters Degree in Curriculum and Instruction.

Director, Latin American Player Development

Rojas begins his third season with the Tigers, following a nine-year stint (2011-19) as Pittsburgh's Major League bullpen coach. Under his leadership, the Pirates relief corps posted a 3.58 ERA (4882.0IP/1943ER) and converted 69.7% of its saves, both marks ranking fourth in the Major Leagues over that span.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Rojas spent six seasons as Pittsburgh's Latin American field coordinator (2005-10) and as a roving minor league instructor in 2002 with an emphasis on the club's Latin American program. Other stops during his coaching career came in Boston (Major League bullpen coach, 2003-04) and Miami (pitching coach with Gulf Coast and Florida State League affiliates, 1996-2001).

A native of Cuba, Rojas was a member of the Cuban National Team from 1982-1994 and ranks as the alltime leader in Cuban baseball with 342 career relief appearances and 90 saves. After coming to the United States he was selected by Miami in the 30th round of the 1995 MLB Draft (signing scout was former Tigers and Marlins executive, Dick Egan), and went on to pitch in the Marlins farm system for the 1995-96 seasons. He has also pitched on Olympic, World and Pan American championship teams.

GABE RIBAS

Director, Pitching

Entering his third season with the Tigers, Ribas is responsible for working across all departments within the club's baseball operations to implement a dynamic pitching program spanning the entire player development system.

Prior to his time with Detroit he held the title of Pitching Coordinator (Performance) with the Dodgers. With Los Angeles, Ribas worked across many areas within player development, including coaching staffs, performance science, strength and conditioning, baseball analytics and others to construct and maintain a highly individualized and comprehensive pitching development program.

Ribas also spent 11 seasons coaching in college baseball with stops at Bowdoin College, Northwestern University, The College of the Holy Cross, Northern Colorado University and Santa Clara University.

A graduate of Northwestern University, Ribas was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 14th round of the 2002 amateur draft and was the organization's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2003, winning 17 games.

JEFF BRANSON

Hitting Coordinator

Branson enters his sixth season as a hitting coordinator with the Tigers. The 2024 campaign marks his 35th in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Tigers, he served as the Major League hitting coach with Pittsburgh for five seasons (2014-18) and as the assistant hitting coach in 2013. Before working with the big league club, Branson was the hitting coach with Triple A Indianapolis (2009-12), manager at Single A Lynchburg (2007-08), manager at Single A Hickory (2005-06) and manager at Single A Williamsport (2004). His first coaching assignment came in 2003, when he was the hitting coach at Williamsport.

He was originally selected by Cincinnati in the second round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft and played nine seasons in the Major Leagues. Over that span, he hit .246/.300/.372 with 34 home runs and 156 RBI in 694 career games between Cincinnati (1992-97), Cleveland (1997-98) and Los Angeles (NL) (2000-01).

The native of Waynesboro, MS, played baseball at Livingston (AL) University, and was named to the Converse Division II All-American Team as a junior in 1988. Additionally, he was a member of the 1988 United States baseball team that won a Gold Medal at the Olympic Games in Seoul, Korea.

MAX GORDON

Hitting Coordinator

Gordon begins his third season in the Tigers organization, serving as one of the organization's hitting coordinators. He comes to Detroit after spending five years (2017-21) working at Driveline Baseball under the same title.

Prior to his time at Driveline, Gordon was a volunteer coach at the University of Michigan for the 2020 season. He also coached at Feather River College from 2014-16.

After being told he would never be able to play baseball again following a car crash that left him in a coma as a teenager, Gordon rehabbed and returned to the diamond at Oregon State University from 2011-13. Playing in 127 games with he Beavers, he posted a combined .226 (64x283) batting average, drove in 20 runs and walked nearly as many times as he struck out (39/43).

DEVIN HAYES

Pitching Coordinator

Hayes begins his first season in the Tigers organization, serving as a pitching coordinator. He most recently spent three years at Tread Athletics, where he was a performance coach, working with athletes ranging from high school to MLB All-Stars.

Hayes began his coaching career at Middlebury College, where he spent two years as an assistant coach, focusing on strength and conditioning as well as instructing outfielders and pitchers. In 2020, he earned his Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) designation from the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Hayes attended Castleton University where he was a four-year starter and helped the Spartans win four straight North Atlantic Conference titles. He compiled an overall career record of 19-4 with a 2.66 ERA and 183 strikeouts in 2031 innings. As a senior in 2017, he went 7-1 with five complete games, a 1.58 ERA and 59 strikeouts in 62.1 innings, earning First Team All-NAC, All-ECAC New England, ABCA/Rawlings and NEIBA All-Region honors.

In addition to coaching, Devin currently plays for the Irish National Baseball Team.

STEPHANDS STROOP

Pitching Coordinator

Stroop is in his third season with the Tigers, serving as a pitching coordinator. He joined the Tigers after spending three seasons as a pitching coach in the lower-levels of the Los Angeles Dodgers player development system, with a focus on overseeing throwing programs/bullpen sessions, contributing to pitch design efforts and implementing game plans for individual players.

Before joining the Dodgers, he served as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Southern University and A&M College - Baton Rouge for one season (2018) after holding the same positions at St. Petersburg College in 2017.

Stroop also has player evaluation experience at the amateur level, spending three years as an associate scout including two with Atlanta (2014-16) and one with Washington (2014).

He was captain of the Claremont McKenna College baseball team in 2010, going on to play professionally for the Carlsbad Bats in 2011.

TIGERS PLAYER DEVELOPMENT STAFF

Toledo Manager

Federowicz enters his second season in the Tigers organization and his first as the manager at Triple A Toledo. Federowicz spent the 2023 season on Detroit's Major League coaching staff as the catching coach.

He joined the Tigers after spending the 2022 season as the manager at Triple A Tacoma in the Seattle Mariners organization. He guided the Rainiers to a 72-78 record in his only season as the skipper.

Federowicz enjoyed a 13-year professional career, including eight Major League seasons with Los Angeles (NL) (2011-14), Chicago (NL) (2016), San Francisco (2017), Houston (2018), Cincinnati (2018) and Texas (2019). His playing career came to a close with the Oklahoma City Dodgers in 2021. He was named to the roster of the United States national baseball team for qualifying for the 2020 Summer Olympics. After the team qualified, he was named to the Olympics roster on July 2, 2021 and was awarded a silver medal.

Federowicz played collegiately at the University of North Carolina from 2006-08, where he was a two-time All-ACC selection, a freshman All-American and helped the Tar Heels to the College World Series in each of his three seasons. He was drafted by Boston in the seventh round of the 2008 MLB Draft.

GABE ALVAREZ

Erie Manager

Alvarez begins his third season in the Tigers organization, serving as the manager at Double A Erie. The position marks his first managerial post and first time on a coaching staff in affiliated baseball.

Alvarez has had an extremely successful first two seasons with the SeaWolves, advancing to the Eastern League Championship Series in both seasons. In 2023, he led Erie to the team's first Eastern League championship, winning all four postseason games, including both games in the finals against Binghamton. Following the season, Alvarez was named the Eastern League Manager of the Year.

Prior to joining the Tigers, Alvarez spent 11 seasons on the coaching staff at the University of Southern California in a variety of roles, including assistant coach, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator. Some accolades during his time recruiting with the Trojans included compiling the No. 14 recruiting class in the country in 2018 (per Baseball America) and being named one of the nation's top 30 recruiters in 2016.

Under his guidance, Alvarez helped lead USC to have at least a .973 fielding percentage in eight of his last 10 seasons. During the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign, and his first season as hitting coach, the Trojans batted .281 as a team, 63 points higher than any of their opponents.

After competing as a student-athlete at USC from 1993-95, Alvarez was selected by San Diego in the second round of the 1995 MLB Draft. Three years later, he made his big league debut with Detroit before being traded back to the Padres in 2000. He played a total of 92 Major League games in his career, slashing .222/.289/.357.

TONY CAPPUCCILLI

West Michigan Manager

Cappuccilli enters his third season in the Tigers organization and his first as the manager for Single A West Michigan. He spent the previous two seasons as the bench coach for Triple A Toledo.

He managed in the Arizona Complex League in 2021, and before that he spent three years in other coaching positions with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. Prior to his time with the Dodgers, he spent three years at the University of New Mexico, one year at UNLV, four years at Irvine Valley College. He also coached collegiate summer ball in the Cape Cod League with the Brewster Whitecaps and managed four summers with the Anchorage Bucs in the Alaska baseball league.

Cappuccilli played college ball at the University of Nevada and received his master's degree at Concordia University. He began coaching at the high school level in 2004 and has held coaching jobs every year since.

D.

Currently, Cappuccilli resides in the Phoenix area with his wife, Katie, and their French bulldogs, Sophie and Simon. RECORD AS MANAGER

ANDREW GRAHAM

Lakeland Manager

Graham returns as the manager in Single A Lakeland in 2024, his fifth year leading the Flying Tigers. Additional posts with the Tigers include manager at Double A Erie in 2018 and three seasons as manager at Single A West Michigan (2014-16). This campaign marks his 14th with the Tigers organization.

He served as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers in both 2009 and 2010, in addition to serving as the organization's Minor League catching coordinator in 2010.

Selected by the Tigers in the 19th round of the 2003 MLB First-Year Player Draft, he spent six seasons (2003-08) in the club's Minor League system as a catcher. Graham saw action with Australia during the World Baseball Classic in both 2006 and 2009. He batted .364 (4x11) with three RBI in three games for Australia in 2009. He served as a coach for Australia in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, and is currently the team's third base/bench coach.

PUBLIX FIELD AT JOKER MARCHANT STADIUM TIGERTOWN SPRING TRAINING IN LAKELAND, FLORIDA

FACTS AND FIGURES

Stadium Location: 2301 Lakeland Hills Blvd., Lakeland, FL 33805 Seating Capacity: 9,598

First Game: March 12, 1966 vs. Minnesota Twins

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2024 for their 88th season in Lakeland, and their 59th at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, ensuring their winter home remains in Lakeland for an unprecedented 100 years, through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100, and was recently upped again to more than 9,500. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972, and a food/picnic court that was added in 1994 to enhance the fan experience.

Thanks to the support of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, the State of Florida and Publix, Joker Marchant Stadium underwent significant renovations prior to the 2017 season, improving training facilities for players, meeting space for the coaching staff and the gameday experience for fans.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a Major League team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium is 452-367-35 and 4,545,925 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

COMERICA PARK HOME OF THE DETROIT TIGERS

FACTS AND FIGURES

Location: 2100 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, MI, 48201

Seating Capacity: 40,988

First Game: April 11, 2000 vs. Seattle Mariners

Playing Field Fences: The left field fence is six feet, 10 inches high. Starting with the 2023 season, the center field wall was lowered from 8.5 feet to seven feet, the right-center field wall was lowered from 13 to seven feet, and the right field wall was lowered from 8.5 feet to seven feet high. Area: The ballpark itself encompasses over 788,000 square feet. Including the outbuildings, the total square footage is over one million Lighting: Comerica Park contains 16 light towers, each standing five stories tall and containing a total of 840 light fixtures. In 2023, Comerica Park replaced 840 metal-halide fixtures with 472 LED fixtures. (424 White LED Field Lights, and 48 RGBW LED Lights). The newly installed system includes 48 color-changing, red-green-blue-white (RGBW) LED fixtures strategically located throughout the stadium's light towers to illuminate the playing surface. Light Quality – the 424 LED fixtures produce a whiter and more uniform light on the field, improving the visibility for players when tracking the ball.

Dugouts: Connected to clubhouses by tunnels. Visitors on first base side, home on third base side.

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit, featuring a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind, and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors of all ages.

THE DISTRICT DETROIT

The District Detroit is a premier sports and entertainment destination unlike any other in the country. This one-stop shop for dining, sports and live entertainment offers eventgoers, residents and visitors a dynamic environment to live, work and play. The area features three major, multi-use venues and all four of the city's largest professional sports teams within walking distance of one another. Venues include the award-winning Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Pistons and world-class entertainment, Comerica Park, home to the Detroit Tigers, and the Detroit Lions' Ford Field. The Fox Theatre, proud partner Comerica Bank, Detroit's crown jewel, continues to be one of the most iconic theaters and music venues in the world. The District Detroit is an ideal landing spot for guests to connect and celebrate before, during or after an event, and offers something for everyone.

THE CONCOURSES

Comerica Park's concourses are among the most generous of any sporting venue. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, though it becomes wider in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Fans are treated to a tour through the rich history of Detroit Tigers baseball as they walk through the main concourse at Comerica Park. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history, complete with artifacts and exhibits. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring rich memories from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the Brushfire Grill behind third base and the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court behind first base, each featuring a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies. Comerica Park is a cashless facility. Guests may remit cash for a prepaid debit card at Cash2Card machines located throughout the ballpark.

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the most stunning features at Comerica Park is the 4K capable LED video board in left field. Starting in 2024, the new Daktronics board is 158% larger, and consists of two boards: an upper display that measures 67 feet tall by 184 feet wide, and a lower display that measures 35 feet tall by 96 feet wide for a total of 15,688 square feet and 14,183,424 pixels. The new Comerica Park scoreboard's size makes it the second largest in MLB.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the Hi-Chew Carousel is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Also, the Hi-Chew Fly Ball Ferris Wheel, a baseball-themed ferris wheel, is located in the Brushfire Grill. The stunning Chevrolet Fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water. Enjoying these rides will be cashless only in 2024.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park, and 2,000 in the two Gallagher Suite Levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower, and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two Gallagher Suite Levels, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

EXTENDED PROTECTIVE NETTING

Installed prior to the 2018 season, Comerica Park features a new and enhanced protective netting system, which extends from sections 140 to 116. The enhanced netting covers a much greater area than previously and is some of the thinnest in baseball, reflecting the organization's commitment to providing a fan-friendly, safe and enjoyable experience at a Tigers game.

COMERICA PARK STATUES

Comerica Park fatures larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends, which overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by sculptor Omri Amrany, and were cast in stainless steel. Gate A features a sculpture of Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell, greeting fans as they enter Comerica Park.

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL TIGER CLUB

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Tiger Club features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertainment space. There is seating for 300 patrons with a view of right field, a bar for 200, the Witherell Lounge and a banquet facility.

JIM BEAM CHAMPIONS CLUB

The Jim Beam Champions Club combines the perks of luxury seating with an open and relaxed lounge atmosphere. The Jim Beam Champions Club opened in 2006 and is located on the suite level down the left field line.

LITTLE CAESARS PARTY SUITES

The Little Caesars Party Suites debuted in 2021 and are located at suites 250 & 251. Combined, the suites can hold up to 70 guests and provide an immersive look into the combined histories of Little Caesars Pizza, the Detroit Tigers and Detroit as a city. Since 2022, single game leases of the Little Caesars Party Suites includes exclusive menu offerings. Contact us at 313-471-2260 to learn more!

THE COMERICA LANDING

Ahead of the 2023 season, the Comerica Landing underwent an extensive renovation, including the addition of the Lite Lounge, featuring a unique social setting with a relaxed outdoor environment which amplifies the Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub. Fans in this area can sit comfortably in high-end outdoor furniture, with a nearby fire feature, big flat screen TVs, and enjoy a ballgame.

THE CHEVROLET PAVILION

The Chevrolet Pavilion features 1,800 square feet of entertainment space under the scoreboard in left field, near the Gallagher Entry. It offers a variety of food, beverage and bar options, including Atwater Brewery selections. The Chevrollet Pavilion provides a relaxing atmosphere with excellent views of the field, and multiple TVs to catch the action.

MILLER LITE PITCHER'S PUB

The Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub is open to the public and located on the Comerica Landing in right field. Boasting a fun and relaxed atmosphere, flat screen TVs, and decor celebrating Detroit Tigers pitchers past and present, this is a great destination to grab a beverage. New this season, Slow's Barbecue will be featured with some of Detroit's favorite food options!

BLUE MOON BASES LOADED BAR

Located behind section 330, the Blue Moon Bases Loaded Bar delivers features such as lounge seating, private restrooms, and excellent beverage offerings. This upper deck lounge is air conditioned, heated and open to the public.

COMFRICA PARK

MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL OFF-RAMP BAR

The MotorCity Casino Hotel Off-Ramp Bar features an over 50-foot bar with various beer selections on tap and nine large screens, creating the ultimate viewing experience of the scoreboard feed during the game and inning breaks. Located next to the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the bar is also accessible from all levels via ramp.

HARD ROOFTOP DECK

Located above the Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub in right field, the Vizzy Hard Seltzer View offers a panoramic view of Comerica Park and is open to the public, but is available for groups to purchase.

ABSOLUT BEVERAGES

Located at Section 141, Absolut Beverages offers a variety of frozen daiquiris, cold beer, and limited specialty cocktails.

Located at Section 143, the new Meijer Market featuring Green Dot Stables offers a large variety of sliders and fries, as well as cold beverages and packaged snacks.

MILLER LITE MARKET & BLUE MOON BISTRO

The Miller Lite Market & Blue Moon Bistro across from the Chevrolet Pavilion are the best spots to quickly grab food or beverage throughout the game. The Miller Lite Market, located at section 149, will now feature Taqueria El Rey. Blue Moon Bistro is located at section 151.

There are four gated entrances to Comerica Park: Comerica Entry, Rocket Mortgage Entry, Gallagher Entry, and the Meijer Entry with each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

MOBILE-ONLY ENTRY

Comerica Park employs mobile ticketing as the primary method of entry for all games at the ballpark. Tigers fans can enter the ballpark utilizing the easy-to-use Major League Baseball Ballpark App, which has emerged as the preeminent application for buying, selling or transferring baseball tickets across MLB. Further, in cooperation with our partners at Seat Geek, fans also have the option to use the Seat Geek App to enter the ballpark.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS

Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select Fridays throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting atmosphere.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park. Comerica Park has also partnered with KultureCity to provide sensoryfriendly amenities and accessories which are available to fans at the Guest Services Office at Section 130.

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

In 2024, Comerica Park is entering its 25th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Over two decades, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth All-Star game in Detroit, and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League, 7-5, behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a then-Major League record, belting 24 home runs in the first round, and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first postseason game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees, 6-0, and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordoñez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street offering into the Detroit sky for a game-ending, three-run home run, propelling the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series, and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

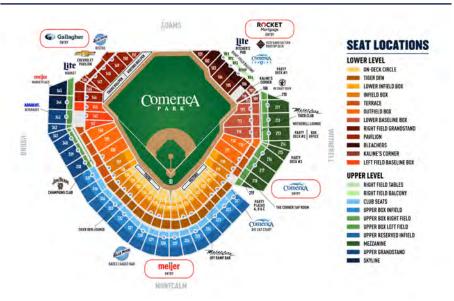

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007, in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park, and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952, at Briggs Stadium.

MIGUEL CABRERA JOINS THE 3,000 HIT CLUB

On April 23, 2022, Miguel Cabrerá collected the 3,000th hit of his Major League career, hitting a first inning single to right field against Colorado Rockies starter Antonio Senzatela. Cabrera joined Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players to reach the milestone while wearing the Olde English 'D'. Cabrera became the 33rd player in MLB history, and the first Venezuelan-born player to reaching 3,000 hits. A crowd of 37,566 witnessed the history making hit and the Tigers 13-0 victory over the Rockies in the first game of a doubleheader.
